Global Wildlife: February 10, 2012, 11 am, Hwy. 40 Folsom, LA. The cost for this field trip is: $15 per an adult, $7 per child, and children under 2 are free. "At Global Wildlife Center, education is paramount. Children are taught the value of wildlife conservation and education through experience. The effectiveness of touch as a teaching tool is evident everyday at Global Wildlife Center. Here children are able to wiggle a camel's hump, rub the giraffe's eighteen inch tongue, and feel the woolly fur of bison." This is a wonderfully, exciting and fun field trip. We will ride in a covered wagon around the property and see fantastic wildlife. We will have the opportunity to touch and feed the animals. Everyone who goes on this field trip has a super great time. You can also go to their website, www.globalwildlife.com, and click on Teacher Resource to access their free lesson plans if your interested. Email Kim at kduhe@aol.com or call Kim at 319-6016 to sign up.
